CITY TRUSTEES

Milk Inspection—Garbage—Water Pollution—Wash Protection Discussed—City Printing

All members present. The matter of the inspection of milk sold in the city was brought up and the city attorney advised the trustees of their power to make such regulations as they desired in regard to milk sold in the city. The finance committee reported favoring an increase of $10 a month, making it $80 a month, in the salary paid G. B. Hoffman covering his duties as assessor and tax collector. On notion it was adopted and the clerk instructed to prepare the necessary resolution.

Mr. Hall, the garbage collector, appeared before the board and explained his trouble in regard to the complaint made as to his refusal to haul garbage from Mr. Walker's place. Referred to the police and sanitary committee. The supply committee recommended the purchase of an Anderson door for the new city hall at $75. The fire and public safety committee presented an ordinance recommended by the chairman of the committee, Mr. Coker making provision for the better protection of buildings hereafter to be erected. The reading of the document was stopped frequently to allow a discussion of its provisions seriatim; but it was finally read and referred to the fire and ordinance committee. The marshal urged prompt action in this matter. Reports were received from various city officers and referred. The city attorney reported in regard to the "Wash" matter that the city has power to enter upon and do such work in the bed of or along the banks of any stream that threatens to damage the city by overflowing within or "adjoining" said municipality. He was not prepared to say whether the city has any legal right to spend the city's money outside of the municipality.

The city attorney reported in regard to the city printing that he had nothing additional to report. (He had previously reported that the law requires that the city shall at "stated time" enter into a contract for city printing for a period of one year.) The matter of laying out new tracts without any reference to existing streets or established conditions, was brought up and discussed lengthily. It was finally referred to public works committee. The city clerk was requested to ask the city health officer for his monthly report, which was not included with the others. The matter of threatened pollution of the water of Verdugo Canyon by a party who is preparing to keep chickens in that vicinity, came up and was discussed. The county health officer had visited the grounds and was reported to have said that Mr. Boswell could keep chickens there provided he took certain precautions.

An ordinance regarding city plumbing inspector was read third time and adopted.

The chairman of public works committee was instructed to take up the "Wash" matter with the county supervisors and see if they will not do the work there that is required to protect the community.

At this time under the head of "Unfinished Business," the matter of making a contract for the city printing came up again. There seemed to be a disposition to again postpone the matter, but on representation made by the editor of the NEWS calling attention to the plain terms of the law, Mr. Lane made a motion seconded by Mr. Coker that the clerk advertise for bids according to law, and it was adopted. At about midnight the meeting adjourned.

FAREWELL PARTY IN HONOR OF THE PENN FAMILY.

For twenty-three years Mrs. Emma Penn and her family have been residents of Glendale and closely identified with St. Mark's Church in all its branches of good work. They are expecting to leave here for England, from whence they came, on the 15th of this month, and it was fitting that the ladies of St. Mark's Guild should tender them a reception at Guild Hall Wednesday evening last. There was a brief and pleasantly informal program, the most of the evening being devoted to sociability and to the discussion of the punch, cake, coffee and ice cream which was furnished by the hostesses. Rev. MacIntosh, with well chosen words, giving testimony as to the faithful services of the lady in Guild work, presented Miss Emma Penn a beautiful autograph album, in which later the most of the guests present inscribed their names. The lady responded feelingly in expressing thanks for the token of appreciation Mr. J. C. Sherer, whose acquaintance with the family dates back to the time of their arrival in Glendale, made a brief address, in which he took occasion to pay a tribute to England in general and to its representatives, the honored guests of the evening, in particular. Miss Ina Whitaker contributed piano selections, and Mrs. Ed Hitchcock and Mrs. Warren Reeves McCann, the latter choir leader of St Mark's, gave pleasure to the audience by the rendering of vocal solos. Rev. MacIntosh was again called upon, and voiced the sentiment of the people, as represented by those present, in regretting the departure from Glendale of this family of most estimable people who have been so long a part of the community, and hoping that their future may contain everything that is good. Mr. W. Prosser Penn expressed, for the family and himself, heartfelt thanks for the tribute of friendship which the gathering of the evening constituted.

Owing to her feeble physical condition, Mrs. Penn was unable to be present, the other members of the family represented being Miss Emma, Mr. W Prosser and Mr. J. Walter Penn.

There was singing by the company of the old reliable "Auld Lang Syne," "America" and "God Save the King."

OLD SETTLERS' PICNIC.

The Old Settlers' picnic at Echo Park Saturday last, was not numerously attended, but it was otherwise one of the most successful and enjoyable gatherings that this organization has ever held. A long table was filled with those "good things of life" which the skilled housewife delights in preparing and serving, and those who gathered about it were filled not only with that which enters the mouth, but with that spirit of sociability and neighborliness which sometimes it seems in the eternal striving for "something new," is apt to be forgotten. The election of officers resulted in the choice of the following: President, J. C. Sherer; secretary, E. D. Goode; executive committee, Mrs. Mary A. Ayers, Mrs. Beyea, Mrs. J. N. Witham, Mrs. J. C. Sherer, Mrs. E. D. Goode, Mrs. A. M. Watson, Mr. Robt. Devine. The object of this association is purely social and every one who has been in the valley long enough to "feel at home" is eligible, though naturally the membership of the oldest among us in regard to years of residence, is particularly desired. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Devine, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sherer, Mrs. J. N. Witham, Mrs. F. E. Beyea, Mrs. C. Melrose, Miss Devine, Mrs. S. E. Shields, Miss R. M. Sherer, Mrs. S. J. Coleman, Mr. L. A. Perkins, Mr. P. H. Bullis, Mr. C. N. Peck. The association accepted the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sherer to be their guests at the next annual meeting on the third Saturday of September next at Somerset Farm.

ROAD IMPROVEMENT.

After long years of waiting on the part of people who have occasion to drive into Los Angeles from this section over the San Fernando road and Avenue 20, that portion of the road in the Los Angeles city limits is being improved to conform to the road made by the highway commission in the country outside. The street is now torn up so as to be almost impassable and evidently the work is being rushed. A new bridge over the arroyo at the pigeon farm is a part of the plan for improvement. The cost of the bridge is to be $51,250, of which sum the Los Angeles Railway company will pay $15,500. It is possible that during the four or five months of bridge construction travel will have to be diverted to the bridge at Avenue 26.

REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING.

The Walker Realty Co. has sold for the owner to W. J. Pierce, a lot on Orange Grove avenue upon which Mr. Pierce will erect an up-to-date cottage.

Mr. Eugene Glane has bought a lot on Fourth street opposite the Pulliam Undertaking Co. and will put up a business structure on it in the near future.

Anderson and Murdock also have contract for a house for Mrs. McDonald, 508 Lomita avenue, on the Witham tract, to cost $1000, a five-room cottage.

They are also building a galvanized iron structure on Brand boulevard near Fifth St. for J. C. Beldin to be used as a tin shop and cornice works

Mrs. De Normadie, Central and Third street, is putting an addition to her home, to cost several hundred dollars.

A portion of the Penn property on Adams street corner of Fifth has been sold to Mrs. Bertha P. Haffner, the well- known teacher of Domestic Science. The portion sold includes the house on Adams street with a frontage of 150 feet on that street and a depth of three hundred feet. Mrs Haffner contemplates many improvements.

Peter L. Ferry is about to start the construction of three bungalows on Salem street to cost about $2000 each

Pasadena has contracted for the erection of an experimental plant for the disposition of sewage by electricity. The septic tank in use at present is unsatisfactory.

Mrs. Meeker was requested to furnish this address for publication and in the near future the readers of the NEWS may enjoy this instructive address. The principal, Mrs. M. O. Ryan, made a very concise statement of the school laws governing attendance, vaccination and contagious diseases.

ELECTION TUESDAY NEXT

The Amendments—Some Good—Some Bad—Several Experimental—Objections Stated

Tuesday next the voters of California are called upon to vote upon the adoption of twenty-three amendments to the state constitution. The voter who attempts to intelligently inform himself as to the merits and defects of the proposed changes in our organic law, has a task of great difficulty before him. A few of them are undoubtedly worthy of general support, a few others are very promising for evil, while the actual result of the others if adopted, is purely speculative. The voter who has not given considerable thought to the subject had better refrain from voting at all. Two or three of the proposed changes have been generally debated, the equal suffrage proposition for one, and it is probable that these will receive a vote of considerable magnitude throughout the state.

The NEWS, for lack of space, can only give brief reference to some of these measures, as follows:

Number 4 on the list, Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 8, is the equal suffrage amendment. Briefly, the objections to this are: If a "right," it should be exercised from the cradle to the grave. If a "privilege," it should be enjoyed by the sex upon whom devolves the responsibility of enforcing the laws. If a "duty," the fixing of it becomes a question of expediency only, and the only argument in favor of revolutionizing the custom of immemorial years, must be the belief on the part of the men that woman is not only better but wiser than man—a vote by men to favor the change, is an acknowledgment of their individual and collective inefficiency. The experiment extending over several years in some states has not demonstrated any gain to the world as a result of the experiment.

No. 8 Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 23, is the recall. As applied to the ordinary elective public servant, there are objections to this experiment, but they might be waived. As applied to the judiciary it is open to most serious objections. It would undoubtedly in times of public excitement when the controlling power of the courts is most needed, have a natural tendency to make a judge subject to the same influences of popular passion and prejudice, that act upon the public at large. This would be shown in cases relating to the controversies arising between capital and labor, when the probabilities are strong that a judge would be influenced very greatly by a fear of rendering a decision that would not meet with popular approval. In advocating the recall as applied to the judiciary it seems to be forgotten that a judge in our courts is more than a public servant, he is an arbitrator, and to recall a judge, as this change will make possible, because he may give an unpopular opinion, is precisely the same in effect as objecting to the decision of an umpire and refusing to abide by it.

No. 12, Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 47, giving enlarged power to the railroad commission, so as to give it authority over all public utilities, taken in connection with No. 16 on the ticket, which proposes to make the commission appointive (and therefore a creature of the governor) instead of elective, is with the latter objectionable as enabling the executive to build up a powerful political machine. These appointees will not be subject to recall nor will the people have any form of control over them, yet their powers will be absolute.

Editor GLENDALE NEWS:

Please permit me to call your attention to assembly amendment No. 26.

This amendment deals with the constitutional provision by virtue of which justices' courts in this state have been established, and amends the present provision by leaving out the words "Justices of the Peace" after the comma near the end of line three of Section No. 1 of said provision as it now stands. It is contended in the argument of Assemblyman Brown, that the adoption of this amendment means the abolition of the justices' courts and probably all inferior courts throughout the state.

The objection to this amendment is that pending litigation in the justices' courts would fail and great confusion would arise concerning all proceedings had in these courts even prior hereto. New courts would have to be established by the legislature and the delay occasioned thereby, as well as the necessity of having the supreme court pass upon the new system of courts, would work a great loss and hardship upon the people. In the event that the amendment carries it would seem that the people of this state would have no inferior courts whatever after election until a meeting of the next legislatur. The result thereof is easily imagined.

To say the least, it would be better to avoid such a condition than to take any chances with such an amendment. If the amendment contained a saving clause to the effect that the present system of courts should continue until new courts should take their places, this danger would then be avoided. But as it stands to be voted on, all pending litigation as well as judgments already entered would die with the courts.

GEO. C. MELROSE,
Justice Burbank Township.

GLENDALE, CAL., OCTOBER 6, 1911

"If there is anything more injurious than good intentions unguided by sagacity, it is yet to be heard of."

The pressure of advertising upon our columns continues to crowd out more interesting matter, but if our patrons will be patient we promise them something at least different in the near future, and possibly as thrilling.

In Seattle, a petition having the necessary 25 per cent of the names of voters upon it, for the purpose of recalling the present mayor who was chosen a few months ago to succeed a recalled mayor, has been made ineffective by 1200 voters who signed it recalling their names.

Around the streets of the city of Los Angeles are hundreds of men complaining of their inability to find work, yet the street superintendent of Tropico spent a whole day recently looking for two or three men willing to work on the streets for an eight hour day for two and a half dollars.

The trustees of the city of Glendale now appear to have reached the point where they are ready to go ahead and take some action to clean out the Verdugo Wash channel and protect the banks, provided they are assured of their legal right to spend money outside the corporate limits. It is to be hoped that this point may be cleared up before the rains fall and the floods descend in overgenerous measure.

A large portion of the shopworkers on the Harriman system of railroads have stopped work, thus inaugurating a strike that will work injury to every one affected and promises to benefit no one. Labor is not benefited by making unreasonable demands, even when they are acceded to, and if the statement issued by Vice President Kruttschnitt is true as to what those demands are, they are certainly unreasonable. The strike cannot last long unless sustained by public sympathy and it is unlikely that this will be given in the present case.

The minds of some voters still seem to be in a state of confusion regarding the question whether territory newly annexed to Glendale will have to bear a proportion of the city's bonded indebtedness. If put as a question, this can readily be answered—certainly not! The late annexation-to-Los Angeles election was held under a new and special law affecting Los Angeles only, the outlying territory in its initial petition, agreeing to take on this responsibility, and this rendered a two-thirds majority necessary. In the election on annexation to Glendale, a bare majority is required.

Nothing seems to be doing in regard to the new school house authorized by the people's meeting to be erected east of Louise street on the north city limits. Nobody in particular seems to want anything done. The action of the called meeting in instructing the trustees ta secure lots and build a school house there seems to have been ill-advised. It is one of those compromises that suit no one. If the territory north of the Wash east of Brand boulevard or Central avenue should be annexed to Glendale, the proper location for a school would be in that section, and the probability of this taking place is not remote. The location that has been selected has very little to recommend it. We believe that if the voters will give this matter attention and look the situation over, they will wish to rescind the action of the former meeting.

The autumn days have come when watermelon and ice cream pall upon the appetite and the elders recall the October mornings "back East" when they hurried out to pick up the chestnuts that had fallen out of the velvet-lined prickly burs, and the gray squirrel and the chipmunk were early awake and having their morning runs on the old moss covered worm fence on the edge of the woods. They hear again, these elders ones, the rustle and the crackling of the corn fodder as handled by the busy huskers, and see the piles of golden ears grow rapidly as thrown by the skillful fist of the farmer's boy and the husky "hired man." And sometimes they wish they could swap the present for the past and be boys again, and then they look around on the beautiful world of today and the riches not measured in silver and gold which they have gathered as they passed along, and are not so sure about the trade!

WHERE STANDS THE NEWS?

The proponents of Equal Suffrage certainly have no cause to complain of the treatment they have received from this paper in the campaign now going on. We have published columns of their arguments, have "nothing extenuated nor ought set down in malice," as above all things we desire that the people shall consider both sides fairly, without prejudice (we should like to add "without sentiment," but that is hopeless) and form their own conclusions. The matter is the most serious political problem that this state has been called upon to decide and it can not be given too serious consideration. This paper has been working for some years for the upbuilding of this community, with some little success, we hope, and is now as always, devoted to that object; but we are far from believing that putting upon woman the responsibility of making and executing the laws, will advance the best interests of the community or of the state. Neither are we convinced that the majority of women are included in the ranks of those making this demand. Certainly the figures quoted to the effect that from sixty to one hundred thousand women in California are "demanding" it, are grossly misleading. These statistics are obtained by taking the membership of the women's organizations in the state which have in some formal way favored the movement, and then adding some. In a local organization some weeks ago this matter came to a vote and was carried by a bare majority, and this we believe is a fair sample of the strength of the movement as gauged by the formal votes that have been taken. Any citizen who will take the trouble to make a test of this matter by obtaining the sentiments of the women of his acquaintance, will know that this claim that a majority of the women are demanding the ballot, rests upon a slender foundation.

If any unanswerable argument has been advanced in favor of equal suffrage in the reams of literature published or the interminable orations delivered, we have failed to see or hear of it.

Now while the issue is yet to be settled with equal chances as to the outcome, the NEWS puts itself upon record as opposed to imposing upon woman the responsibilities of the franchise.

WILL SENATOR WORKS FIND HIMSELF?

We have commended Senator Works more than once for his position in regard to a number of important political measures and theories, and in his speech delivered at the reception tendered him a few days ago in Los Angeles when he declared that "the present tariff on lemons is unreasonably high," he forces us to check up one more point to his credit. The NEWS expressed this opinion when the lemon tariff was increased from one cent to a cent and a half a pound, and has reiterated it frequently in these columns. Naturally we rejoice that the senator is coming around to our point of view.

His account now is credited by the following items: Upholding President Taft in the Canadian reciprocity matter; agreeing with the president as to the unwisdom of the recall as applied to the judiciary; supporting the president in opposing the tariff measure put forward by the Democrats and insurgents during the last days of the congress recently adjourned; favoring a reduction of the tariff on lemons. Here are four important matters in which Senator Works has shown himself possessed of sufficient wisdom and independence to lead him to act contrary to the wishes of the insurgents as represented by Senator LaFollette. In the first three he agreed with President Taft, and in all four he was opposed to Senator La Follette! And yet Senator Works has declared his preference for La Follette as a candidate for president as against Taft! Now can the public believe that Senator Works' choice between these two men is not influenced by the fact that LaFollette is the choice of the faction which elected Works? LaFollette showed his inconsistency when after having declared himself in favor of a tariff commission, he, for political purposes endeavored to put through a half-baked tariff bill rather than wait ninety days for a report from the tariff commission. Will Senator Works stultify himself by acting with LaFollette next December, or will he show his independence by supporting the president? And if he supports the president in the most important political matters, how can he with any consistency support LaFollette as a candidate to succeed Taft? When the senator from California really finds himself, on which side of the fence will he be?

TWO SPEAKERS OF NOTE.

(Contributed)

Chairman P. S. McNutt, of the Equal Suffrage Campaign Committee, opened the meeting on Saturday night at I. O. O. F. hall with a brief and appropriate address.

The Hon. John C. Hamm, a lawyer of Evanston, Wyoming, who has served as state chairman and organizer of the leading political party in that state and has occupied many high positions of trust, will speak upon the question, "How About Woman Suffrage in the States Where It Exists?" This gentleman is thoroughly familiar by twenty years' actual experience and contact with the question of suffrage for women in Wyoming and Utah and his testimony as to how it works in those states for good, threw light upon some of the doubtful factors entering into this much agitated question and was telling and effective.

Mrs. Clara Shortridge Foltz, a leading lawyer of Los Angeles and the first to enter the legal profession on the Pacific Coast, was also heard upon this occasion and owing to the fact that this lady has heretofore during the present political campaign, made no addresses outside of Los Angeles, Glendale may feel honored. Mrs. Foltz has a state and national reputation as a speaker and organizer and was instrumental in securing permission for women to enter the profession in the Pacific Coast states. She was a pioneer in having good laws passed, especially in behalf of women and children. Mrs. Foltz in an impassioned flood of oratory burned truths into the very souls of her hearers.

Mr. Frank Wolfe, active in getting the Eighth Amendment before the legislature, was unable to be present, as advertised.

Mrs. Della May Orth, a recent musical acquisition, accompanied by Miss Laura Willford Brown, gave two charming vocal selections.

Mr. Kenneth Barager, always a favorite, gave a solo in which he was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Bailey.

DISTINGUISHED WRITER HEARD.

(Contributed)

An appreciative audience of representative citizens of Glendale listened to the addresses given by Mr. Clifford Howard and Mrs. Cora Lewis at I. O. O. F. hall September 23d, under the auspices of the Equal Suffrage Campaign League.

Lawyer P. S. McNutt, as chairman, in introducing the speakers, made a brief, scholarly address in which he quoted from England's Magna Charta, "To none will we delay, to none will we deny right or justice." And stated that this underlying pledge of government would never be fulfilled until women had the right to vote.

Hr. Howard is the well-known novelist and writer of Washington, D. C., whose articles and live topics of the day are to be found in such magazines as the North American Review and other high-class publications. At present Mr. Howard is giving his entire time to writing and talking in favor of equal suffrage. A refutation by Mr. Howard of Mr. Patton's much quoted arguments against woman suffrage will be found in the current Out-west. Mr. Howard is a man of splendid intellect, is thoroughly equipped with a wealth of knowledge and information which he uses in a clear, concise, convincing, logical manner, and having a good voice and magnetic personality, he held his audience which expressed appreciation by frequent applause.

Mrs. Cora Lewis is well known in Los Angeles for her energetic work along civic and educational lines and was listened to attentively as she presented the needs of woman suffrage to woman as she is affected by conditions pertaining to health, morals and justice in the home, school and public. Mrs. Lewis is a pleasing speaker and affected her hearers alternately to smiles and tears while her arguments

Miss Pearl Harrison, whose sympathetic voice and unusual dramatic ability created enthusiasm in the Queen Esther Cantata, sang "Oh Dry Those Tears," to which she responded to applause by an encore. Miss Harrison was accompanied by Mrs. Anderson, director of music in the grammar schols.

THE WEATHER.

The "unusual" really happens here sometimes in the weather department and it surely occurred last week. On Tuesday night quite a frost formed in the lower part of the valley, leaving its mark on tender vegetation and in some sections along the river bottom is reported as being quite severe. It is the earliest date on which frost has occurred for thirty years in this section. On Thursday afternoon and night rain fell, measuring 1.06 inches by Mr. H. E. Bartlett's gauge. Although the effect of the storm has been to settle the dust and clear the atmosphere in a delightful manner, the effect on the whole will be injurious in those sections where beans are grown and raisins dried.

Mrs. L. Smith of San Diego is visiting at the home of Mrs. H. G. Hossard of 219 Central avenue.

MEN!

In the quiet of the election booth remember the Quiet Woman at Home and VOTE NO on Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 8 (occupying 4th place on the ballot), conferring right of suffrage on women.

TROPICO

The Tropico bridge whist club met at the home of Mrs. Barker on Glendale avenue, this week.

Noble Ripley has accepted a position with the Davis Grocery company of this place. Mr. Ripley is from Pueblo, Colo.

Marshal Fishback with a crew of workers has been cleaning up the streets of this city during the past week.

Mrs. Charles Hunter of San Fernando road, Washington Park, has been quite ill at her home for the past few days.

Last Saturday was a tag day at Tropico. The affair was held for the benefit of the Tropico library and was an annual event.

E. H. Weston, Dan Richards, George A. Peck and Burt Burlingham rode the goat at a recent meeting of the Vizor lodge, K. of P. of this place.

The case of Jones vs. Sinclair was heard by City Recorder Shuey and has been taken under advisement. The trouble started in an auto collision on Central avenue in Tropico.

Mrs. A. H. Sellers of Pasadena, and her house guest, Miss Lillian Hancock of Chicago, were Monday guests of Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., at her home on Tropico avenue.

S. A. McNutt and family, who for the past several weeks have been visiting their former home in Tennessee, have returned to their home at this place at the corner of Cypress street and Walnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ellias and family who for the past year or so have occupied the home at the corner of Tropico and Brand boulevard, have taken possession of their new home on the Chandler ranch on the west side of Tropico.

The contract has been let for the curbing and sidewalking of Central avenue from the city's northern limits to San Fernando road. The contracts for the improvement of Oak Drive, Laurel street, Tropico avenue and Cypress avenue will be let soon, and then things will hum. Watch us grow.

The appointment of preachers in the recent convention held in the First Methodist church in Los Angeles shows that Rev. W. C. Botkin, who for the past two years has been pastor of the Methodist church of this place, will go to Oxnard, while Rev. Carnes of Elsinore will fill the pulpit of the local church for the coming year. The members of the local church are sorry to see Mr. Botkin go and wish him every success in his new field of labor.

Another example of how the city of Los Angeles takes care of the newly-annexed territory is exhibited in the way that city is now caring for the best interests of the children living on Park avenue west of the Southern Pacific tracks. Fifteen children in that district have no school which they can attend, although they are all anxious for more learning. They are not permitted to go to the Tropico school, which they formerly attended, on account of a law which prohibits pupils from one city going to the schools of another city. It is possbile, however, for the city of Los Angeles to take the necessary steps whereby these children might attend the Tropico school. Los Angeles is doubtless hurting the "Annexation to Los Angeles" cause in this territory. When the annexation proposition is put to the residents of this valley they will remember how these young folks were deprived of a chance to study and learn, and fearing that the same deal may be handed to the entire valley, they will wisely tell Los Angeles that there is "nothing doing."

TROPICO PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION.

Tropico Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday, Oct. 6th, at 3 o'clock. There will be a program and refreshments. All interested in the "Child Study" work are cordially invited to attend.
